

ASTRA NOVA TRAINING

PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS SHOULD NOT BE A MATTER OF COMPROMISE

“We do all the work, Any training, anywhere”

The pharmaceutical and clinical research industries carry the responsibility of constantly improving and complying with the latest global standards and good practices. We believe that professional knowledge and expertise should not be hard to access and finding the right expert to provide needed training and certification should never be compromised. Through our International Network of Trainers, Astra Nova gives you access to over 60 industry experts worldwide, prepared to help your organisation get the best training service it needs. Any Training, Anywhere!

Organising training has never been easier. We will help you find the right training solution and organise everything for you.

HOW IT WORKS - THE 5 STEPS.

1 What, When and Where?

We discuss the details of your needs and begin creating your bespoke training solution.

2 Who?

We contact our trainer that match your needs.

3 Who exactly?

We provide you with multiple proposals to choose from.

4 All that other stuff

We finalise all the mundane details including travel and accommodation.

5 Bespoke solution delivered

Our trainer comes to you and shares his expertise

SINGLE POINT OF CONTACT FOR ALL YOUR TRAINING NEEDS

Organising the right training for your organisation could not be easier. All the industry experts that your organisation may need are at the palm of your hands. We do all the work in preparing a bespoke solution, from finding the right training expert through handling travelling and accommodation. Our consultants will work with you to ensure that all your training needs are satisfied.

MULTIPLE OFFICE TRAINING SOLUTIONS

Organising training for multi-centre studies could be an exhausting and time consuming process that carries many hidden risks. Through our International Network of Trainers, we handle the entire organisational process. We will present you with multiple options to choose from and ensure the successful completion of every training project.
